“I will shoot so many Jews if I’m drafted with them. Please draft me Israel. Do it.” Marxist-run FBI comes down on Gen Z Pennsylvania man for tweets

Erie PA — 26-year-old Eric Holman has just been jailed and indicted for tweets which the Jewish-infiltrated thoroughly Marxist FBI claims violate Title 18, USC, Section 875(c) regarding “communication containing any threat to…injure the person of another.”

Showing that there’s a deliberate FedGov campaign to go after Jew detractors, this is uncomfortably similar to another incident I brought to you only three weeks ago, which deals with the same concepts. You can read it here: https://americaninexile.substack.com/p/death-to-every-jew-jewish-fedgov

Without repeating that article in its entirety, let’s just reiterate the concept. In the U.S., you are supposed to be allowed violent political rhetoric. “I want to kill all Jews,” is not supposed to be construed as an actionable threat, especially when it names no Jew or Jew org in particular and isn’t sent to any Jew or Jew org in particular, even more so below where it includes the conditional “if.”

The Jewish-captured FBI cited three tweets of Holman’s. (I’ve posted the indictment here.) The first two definitely don’t rise to the level of a threat. The third is closer, but still not a slam dunk. They were as follows:

1. "I can’t wait to use U.S. weapons to gun down people from a nation the size of New Jersey. They also wear funny little hats and worship Baal.”

2. “I will shoot so many Jews if I’m drafted with them. Please draft me Israel. Do it.”

3. “We all know they are the problem. Instead of posting online, grab a firearm and go do something. I’m making plans. What are the rest of you doing?”

The third is the only one that should have even been attempted to be construed as a threat, and does have a more problematic “I’m making plans” where “plans” is an established concept in enforcing this particular federal law. But “do something,” is totally vague. You could “grab a firearm” to wear it while you go protest loudly outside the Israeli embassy.

Another burden that needs to be met in these cases is proving subjective belief. Two landmark SCOTUS decisions together, Elonis v. United States (2015) and Counterman v. Colorado (2023) mean it’s not enough for the scum at the FBI or at the DOJ to decide, “That sounds threatening,” nor the kike outfits who pushed them to use the government to destroy Eric Holman. Even if statements are out-and-out threats, FedGov still must prove the speaker knew they would be perceived as threats, i.e. his subjective state of mind. Unless you volunteer what you were thinking at the time, that’s a high burden for FedGov to meet.

Unfortunately, Holman broke the cardinal rule, not in saying he'd like to see Jews dead as he's legally entitled to say as an American, but in talking to the Feds.

If FBI goons show up to ask you questions like they did with Holman, NEVER, EVER, SPEAK TO THEM, except to tell them to fuck right off back to their Marxist shithole office. If you're afraid to be that rude, then say, "I'm willing to answer your questions, but only with my lawyer present." That sounds like it's just kicking the can down the road, but it's not. They will leave and NOT TRY AGAIN. FBI scum know that there's no point to asking you anything when you have a lawyer who's not going to let you answer.

Here, Holman's answers allowed the FBI to construe them (at least enough to arrest him) as admissions that they were threats, (though Holman said he'd "never act on them," which kinda makes them not threats). Plus, Holman's not a lawyer so you can argue he didn't really know the legal definition of "threat" when he agreed with the FBI's characterization of them. But speaking to them at all was the mistake here, and it gave the Foreskin Bureau of Investigation enough to refer it to the DOJ, which is equally riddled with disgusting, foul anti-American, anti-white kikes from top to bottom.

Believe me, I know. When the Jew-run DOJ came after me with a suit for $10 million for speaking out against kikes, it was Jews up and down the line behind it. The first DOJ lawyer put in charge, a kike named Runkle. When I took it to the Court of Appeals, the lawyer scum in charge of countering the appeal, the DOJ kike named Stern, who assigned it to his fellow DOJ kike lawyer Springer. And all overseen by the Jew head of the DOJ, stinky ghetto Jew Merrick Garland.

So per U.S. law, including the landmark SCOTUS decision of Brandenberg v. Ohio which prevents the government punishing even speech that advocates CRIMINAL activity, so long as it's not imminent, you and I are both allowed to post online, "I want to bathe in the blood of scores of dead Jews that is so fresh from their ritually slit throats that it's still warm." If you didn't send that directly to the ADL or to Jonathan Greenblatt's Jew rat mother, didn't say, "and that's a threat," and didn't say, "and I have plans to start filling the tub tonight at 5," IT'S NOT ILLEGAL.

(Actually even less so because Greenblatt's disgusting kike mother gratefully just died in May. See here. Hit me up, anyone, if you want to arrange a trip for us to go piss on the dirty yenta's still-fresh grave in Florida.)

But we Americans live in captured territory. Jew commissars are in charge, and they will break any rule, pervert any law, to punish those who speak out against their evil presence, and just trust you will be too scared or too ignorant or too demoralized to fight it.

So the takeaway is not to stop expressing hatred for the kike vermin, but to mentally prepare yourself ahead of time to tell Jew-run FedGov to pound sand if they show up with "questions." They've already opened a file on you at that point. You’re not going to undo that by telling them you’re harmless. Verbally abuse them as you order them to leave to show you know your legal rights and won’t be a pushover if they’re stupid enough to try to pursue it for their Jew commissar masters.

And be prepared to fight the Jews. Jews are the most evil hominid that ever existed. They will accept nothing except your slavery to them, or your destruction. Fight, fight, fight the kike and never stop until either you or they are dead and gone.
